

Kvetko, Peter (Salem State College)

Current Institution

Salem State College (Assistant Professor) Areas of Expertise

Peter Kvetko teaches courses in ethnomusicology and music theory at Salem State College. He also directs the World Music Ensemble and offers private lessons on sitar and tabla. Dr. Kvetko joined the music department in 2007 after teaching at Tufts, Brandeis, Northeastern, and the University of Texas at Austin.

Ph.D. from The University of Texas at Austin

Dissertation Title: Indipop: Producing Global Sounds and Local Meanings in Bombay (2005)

Popular music and politics; Classical music of North India; Asian American Music

Performance: sitar, tabla, Javanese gamelan

Contact Information
Dr. Peter Kvetko
Assistant Professor
Salem State College
peter.kvetko@salemstate.edu